

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

April 2, 2026

The Honorable James Comer
Chairman
Committee on Oversight and Government Reform
2157 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Chairman Comer,

After the cooperative briefing delivered by former Attorney General Pam Bondi and careful consideration of the totality of circumstances surrounding our investigative work, I recommend the immediate rescission of the subpoena issued pursuant to Congresswoman Nancy Mace's motion during the Committee Hearing on March 4, 2026.

Our Committee's investigation has made measurable progress through legitimate legislative oversight, and we are pursuing the truth judiciously. The former Attorney General's in-person, voluntary briefing to Committee was forthcoming and demonstrated the Executive's willingness to work with Congress in good faith. It is my considered opinion that the subpoena is not required, and in fact is injurious to our oversight mission.

The Committee's full-scale investigation remains the best and most responsible path forward. I will continue to lead in this effort without hesitation, as I have stated from the beginning.

I urge the Committee to act swiftly to rescind the subpoena, using longstanding procedures to formally advise the recipient that the subpoena is officially considered moot and thus, legally satisfied.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Clay Higgins".

Clay Higgins
Member of Congress